ITINERARY DAY BY DAY

Day 1 Arrival to Guatemala

Your Guatemalan adventure begins upon arrival at Guatemala City Airport. After a warm meet-and-greet, you'll embark on a scenic journey to Antigua, a captivating city nestled 30 miles southwest. The approximately 1.5-hour drive offers a taste of Guatemala's diverse landscapes, with the road gradually ascending to an elevation of 7,000 feet, revealing breathtaking panoramic views. Antigua, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, boasts a rich history and architectural charm. Nestled at a comfortable altitude of 5,000 feet, it provides a refreshing escape from the heat. For your overnight stay, you'll be staying at the Camino Real Antigua Hotel, a haven of comfort and elegance in the heart of this enchanting city. Overnight Camino Real Antigua Hotel.

Day 2 Unveiling the Legacy of Antigua City tour

Delve into the captivating history of Antigua on a comprehensive city tour. This UNESCO World Heritage Site, once known as Guatemala City, was the vibrant capital of Central America for over 200 years, encompassing parts of present-day Mexico, Belize, Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, and Costa Rica. During this era, it even held the distinction of being the third-largest city in the Americas!

Witness Antigua's architectural marvels as your guide leads you on a picturesque walk-through Cobblestone Streets. Explore magnificent palaces, churches, convents, monasteries, and plazas, each whispering tales of a bygone era. The surrounding volcanoes offer a majestic backdrop to this captivating city.

Antigua's enchanting allure extends beyond its historical significance. Blessed with a perfect spring-like climate throughout the year, it has become a haven for artists and writers. Perhaps you'll follow in the footsteps of renowned figures like Antoine de Saint-Exupéry, author of "The Little Prince," or the prolific writer Gore Vidal. In the afternoon, the city is yours to explore at your own pace. Your knowledgeable guide will be happy to offer recommendations for a personalized afternoon adventure. Overnight, you'll return to the comfort and elegance of your accommodations at Camino Real Antigua Hotel.

Day 3 Iximche Archaeological Site and Xetnox Village

Immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of Mayan culture on a captivating journey today. As you depart Antigua and travel towards the breathtaking Lake Atitlan, prepare to be captivated by the beauty of the Guatemalan landscape and the vibrant Maya villages adorned with vegetable plantations. Before embarking on our adventure, let's delve into a bit of the local language! In Mayan languages, the letter "x" is pronounced like "sh." Additionally, a handy phrase to remember is "Matiosh," which means "thank you" in many Mayan dialects. Your first stop unveils the fascinating legacy of the Cackchiquel Maya people, representing over two-thirds of Guatemala's population and further divided into 22 distinct groups, each with its own unique language and customs. Leaving Antigua behind, you'll enter the realm of the Cackchiquel Maya. Step back in time at Iximche, a captivating archaeological site that served as the capital of the Cackchiquel Kingdom from 1470 until its conquest by the Spanish in 1524. Unlike many rainforest sites lost to time, Iximche remains a sacred place for the Cackchiquel people. Explore its ancient structures and gain insights into this powerful civilization. Journey onward to Xetonox, a charming village nestled near Iximche. Here, a welcoming local family awaits your visit, eager to share their way of life. Witness their traditional practices, explore their crops, and admire their vibrant weavings. Savor a delicious lunch prepared right at their home, offering a taste of local cuisine and hospitality. Visiting the village's grade school provides a unique opportunity to connect with the younger generation and gain a deeper understanding of daily life in Xetonox. Witness the community spirit and the importance of education in this vibrant village.

As the day draws to a close, embark on a scenic drive towards the majestic Lake Atitlan, nestled at a refreshing altitude of 5,000 feet above sea level. As the day fades, retreat to the tranquility of your Atitlan Hotel haven, where you can recharge for the adventures that await tomorrow. Overnight in Atitlan Hotel.

Day 4 San Juan La Laguna

Delve deeper into the captivating world of Lake Atitlan, a majestic caldera lake formed by a volcanic explosion a mere 80,000 years ago (geologically speaking, practically yesterday!). This wonder of nature boasts a nearly circular shape, stretching 10 miles in diameter and reaching depths of 1,000 feet. Three imposing volcanoes rise majestically around the lake, completing the breathhtaking panorama. A picturesque boat ride whisks you away to San Juan La Laguna, a village nestled on the shores of the lake. Here, you'll connect with the Tz'utuhil Maya people, a vibrant community steeped in rich traditions. Your visit is facilitated by the local Community Tourism Committee, an organization we proudly support and respect.

Prepare for an active and engaging day exploring the essence of San Juan. Witness the fascinating process of creating natural dyes, a traditional practice passed down through generations. Learn about organic coffee production, a vital part of the local economy. Marvel at the artistry of hand-woven textiles, a testament to the Tz'utuhil people's skill and creativity. Embark on a scenic hike to a nearby viewpoint, where breathtaking vistas of the lake unfold before you. Witness the majestic volcanoes framing the turquoise waters, creating a picture-perfect postcard scene. Observe the Tz'utuhil women as they skillfully embroider their blouses with vibrant birds and flowers. Their dedication to this beautiful craft is a captivating sight and provides a glimpse into their cultural heritage.

As the day draws to a close, your boat gently ferries you back to your hotel, where you can unwind and reflect on the day's enriching experiences. Tonight, enjoy your final night at Atitlan Hotel, nestled amidst the stunning beauty of Lake Atitlan.

Overnight at Hotel Atitlan.

Day 5 Culturally rich town of Nebaj.

While this vibrant town is renowned for its bustling market days, on this occasion, you'll experience its tranquil side.

Step back in time as you visit the town's main plaza, a historic site built upon a pre-Columbian temple. This sacred space remains a significant pilgrimage site for the Maya people, who even today ascend the ancient stairway to burn incense and offer prayers to their ancestors.

As your journey continues, prepare to delve into the rich culture of the Ixil Maya people, another distinct group residing in the Guatemalan highlands. Your destination for the night is Nebaj, a vibrant village steeped in Ixil traditions.

Tonight, you'll be nestled in a unique haven – Hacienda San Antonio, a charming dairy farm located within the village of Acul. This provides a wonderful opportunity to experience a different facet of Guatemalan life and hospitality. Overnight at Hacienda San Antonio

Day 6 Experiencing Ixil Culture in Nebaj

Awaken to the symphony of nature – the rhythmic crow of roosters intertwined with the gentle tolling of the village church bell – a truly immersive experience in the heart of rural Acul. Embrace the tranquility of your unique farm stay at Hacienda San Antonio before embarking on a captivating day of cultural discovery. Venture into the town of Nebaj, where the welcoming "Culture House" will guide you on a journey into the Ixil way of life. The Ixil Maya people, residing in Nebaj, Chajul, and Cotzal, were once part of the "Ixil Triangle" during Guatemala's Civil War (1961-1996). Though deeply affected by this period, they now extend a warm welcome to visitors eager to learn about their rich culture. Savor a delicious lunch hosted by a local family, offering a taste of Ixil cuisine and fostering a deeper connection with the community. In the afternoon, embark on an optional excursion to the nearby town of Chajul. Here, a unique opportunity awaits – a visit to a local home adorned with incredible murals, believed to be over 200 years old. These murals offer a glimpse into the Ixil people's history and artistic traditions.

As the day draws to a close, return to the tranquility of Hacienda San Antonio in Acul. Reflect on the day's enriching experiences, savoring the warmth of Ixil hospitality and the unique charm of your farm stay. Overnight at Hacienda San Antonio

Day 7 Scenic Journey to Cobán

Bid farewell to the charming village of Nebaj and Hacienda San Antonio, carrying with your fond memories of your time spent amidst the Ixil Maya people. Today, embark on a captivating journey towards Cobán, a city nestled amidst lush cloud forest.

Prepare to be captivated by the ever-changing landscapes as you travel along scenic routes. The road winds through majestic mountains and verdant valleys, passing by traditional Mayan villages like Cunen and Uspantan. These villages offer a glimpse into the rich cultural tapestry of Guatemala.

Descend into the Chixoy River Valley, a fertile basin cradled by mountains. This river transforms into the mighty Usumacinta further downstream, ultimately marking the border between Guatemala and Mexico. As you traverse this region, a portion of the road might become unpaved, adding a touch of adventure to your journey. As you arrive in Cobán, prepare to be enveloped by the cool embrace of a tropical cloud forest. A visit to a local orchid nursery provides a delightful introduction to the region's vibrant flora. Cobán boasts a rich history, evident in its colonial architecture. Tonight, you'll be nestled in Casa Duranta, a charming hotel housed within a colonial building, right in the heart of downtown. This unique accommodation allows you to step back in time and experience the city's historic ambience.

Overnight at Casa Duranta

Day 8 Wonders of Semuc Champey

Immerse into the realm of the Kekchi Maya people, another vibrant indigenous group inhabiting the region surrounding Cobán, the area's largest city. As you ascend from Cobán, situated at a comfortable 4,000 feet above sea level, the climate becomes slightly warmer. Notice how the Kekchi women's attire reflects this shift, their colorful blouses lighter in weight yet equally captivating.

Prepare for an unforgettable adventure as you embark on a journey towards Semuc Champey Natural Monument, the region's crown jewel. The very act of being able to reach this wonder is an experience in itself. The road winds through a captivating "karstic" landscape, adorned with lush coffee and cardamom plantations. Semuc Champey is a breathtaking natural wonder where the Cahabón River mysteriously disappears into a mile-long cave. On top of this geological marvel lies a series of crystal-clear pools, inviting you to swim and cool off in their refreshing depths. Some pools even reach depths suitable for diving, offering an opportunity to explore the underwater world. Imagine yourself surrounded by the vibrant embrace of a tropical rainforest, the perfect backdrop for this natural paradise.

For those seeking an adrenaline rush, a challenging hike up the hillside awaits. The reward? Breathtaking panoramic views of Semuc Champey and the surrounding landscape, an unforgettable vista etched in your memory. As the day draws to a close, embark on a scenic return journey to Cobán, carrying with you the memories of this spectacular natural wonder and the warmth of the Kekchi Maya culture. Tonight, unwind in the comfort of Casa Duranta, ready for your final day in Guatemala. Overnight at Casa Duranta

Day 9 Adventures in Chisec and the Petén

Prepare for a change of scenery as you depart Cobán and head north towards the warmer lowlands. The journey takes approximately 1.5 hours, and the temperature gradually rises as you descend into a new ecological zone.

Upon arrival in the charming town of Chisec, the local Community Tourism Committee will extend a warm welcome. This dedicated group, empowered by a development project, offers exciting adventures while creating sustainable income opportunities for the community. Historically, many residents relied on subsistence agriculture in a challenging environment. Now, thanks to this initiative, they can showcase their beautiful landscape and cultural heritage to visitors like you.

Get ready for an adrenaline rush! The Chisec Community Tourism Committee has organized an unforgettable experience – tubing down the refreshing San Simon River. Imagine yourself gliding through the lush greenery, the cool water embracing you as you navigate the gentle rapids.

In the afternoon, prepare for another exciting adventure – rappelling into the mysterious Bombil Pek Caves. Descent into this hidden world, adorned with natural formations, will leave you breathless. This experience is a testament to the ingenuity of the Community Tourism Committee, offering unique ways to explore the region's natural wonders.

As you depart Chisec in the afternoon, the landscape transforms dramatically. The road becomes noticeably flatter and straighter, a marked contrast to the previous days' journeys. This signals your arrival in the Petén, a vast region that, geologically speaking, forms part of the Yucatán Peninsula. This very area witnessed the rise and flourishing of the ancient Maya civilization.

Your destination for the next two nights is Lake Petén Itza, a majestic body of water nestled in the heart of the Petén. This legendary lake played a significant role in Mayan history, and its shores are dotted with archaeological sites waiting to be explored. Tonight, unwind in the comfort and elegance of Las Lagunas Boutique Hotel, perfectly situated for your upcoming adventures. Overnight at Las Lagunas Boutique Hotel.

Day 10 The Majesty of Tikal

No descriptions or photos can truly prepare you for the sheer scale and majesty of Tikal, a UNESCO World Heritage Site unlike any other. This remarkable place holds a dual distinction – recognized for its exceptional cultural significance and its breathtaking natural setting within the Maya Biosphere Reserve.

Step back in time and explore Tikal, a once-dominant Mayan city that flourished from 100 BC to 900 AD. Imagine the city at its peak, a powerful center of civilization amidst the lush rainforest. Abandoned in the 10th century, Tikal was gradually reclaimed by nature, only to be rediscovered by explorers in the 19th century. Towering temples pierce the rainforest canopy, intricate carvings whisper tales of the past, and plazas resonate with the echoes of a bygone era. As you explore, keep your eyes peeled for the abundant wildlife that calls the Maya Biosphere Reserve home – you might encounter colorful birds flitting through the trees or hear the calls of monkeys echoing through the jungle.
